

TOMSA NEWSLETTER

AUGUST 2018

EDITION 2/2018

Dear Levy Contributors and Colleagues

Welcome to our TOMSA newsletter. We are excited to announce that the Tourism Business Council of South Africa (TBCSA) has appointed an interim CEO. Among news out of the TBCSA, they've also released TBI Report for the first half of 2018. In celebration, we also shine a light on some women doing fantastic work in the tourism sector as Women's Month draws to a close.

Expect to be pleasantly surprised by the total figure of savings made if you were a TOMSA levy collector in good standing at Meetings Africa and Africa's Travel Indaba 2018. With that said, we also announce that exhibitor applications are now open for these two massive trade events for 2019. Read below to find out when they're happening next year and book your spot. All inputs for the preparation of 2019 shows should be sent to Nitta nitta@southafrica.net.

We also remind all our TOMSA levy contributors about the SA Tourism initiative that gives you the opportunity of showcasing your spectacular domestic travel deals on their platform for free! We've also included the latest travel and migrations statistics from the month of June.
